SHOT A STRIKER IN COURT PRISON PEN

Lawrence Daly, Non-Union Man Who Was Assaulted by 200 Freight-Handlers Later Wounds One of His Assailants at Essex Market.

John Lane, a striking freight handler, of No. 603 Water street, was shot own in the prison pen of the Essex aMrket Court late this afternoon by Lawice Daly, a non-union man of No. 73 Montgomery street, for assaulting Lane and James O'Donnell, of No. 605 Water street, had just been rrested. The shooting followed a riot at the corner of Water and Montnery streets, in which some two hundred strikers took part and in which

Daly left the New Haven pier this afternoon to go home. He was ill after he had gone several blocks he noticed that the strikers were following him. When he reached the corner of Montgomery and Water streets a dozen men broke away from the rest of the strikers and attacked him. He was knocked down and cut about the head and body collection Sexton, of the Madison street station, came up in time to catch i two of the man's assailants. They were Lane and O'Donnell, but Sexton arsted Daly, too, and made a charge of fighting in the streets against him. The man was fitter for a hospital than a cell, but he was taken to the staon-house with the others and then to Essex Market Court. There he was blaced in the prison pen with several other men. Once in the pen, Lane and Donnell got into another fight with Daly, calling him a scab and other ob-

Put Aside—Delegates Were Not Instructed.

CONVENTION HALL, COLUMBUS, O. May 25.—Previous to the assembling of the Democratic State Convention to-day the conservatives had won in the preliminary meetings. The Committee on Credentials last night had compromised the context from Dayton by giving the Cox and Dowling delegates one-half voice each, but before daylight this action was reconsidered and the Cox delegates were seated, thus giving all the 20s contested seats to the conservatives.

There was a notable demonstration for McCiellan as the speaker eulogized the Mayor of New York at the close of his speech.

On a vote of 391 to 327 the platform was adopted and the delegates pledged for the unit rule.

The Committee on Resolutions refused to reaffirm the Chicago and Kansas City relations, and left the declaration of the Ohlo canal system and the indorsement of James Kilbourne for President were also detected.
